

Are you looking for a more private experience for your customers right on the show floor? Having a dedicated private meeting room on the show floor will keep attendees close to your booth while offering a place to have a more personal conversation away from the crowds.

Each enclosed meeting room comes complete with furnishings, an identification sign and features a door for more privacy. We offer different room sizes and layouts depending on your companies needs.

An Expo Hall Private Meeting Room includes:

- Dedicated enclosed room on the show floor
- Either conference-style or reception-style furnishings*
- 8.5x11" identification sign on room door
- Standard carpet
